Sessions are booked and charged in either half day, full day or full week increments.

All fees charged, regardless of age of child, will be spread evenly over the period of 12 months. Fees are payable for and take into account (closure due to) Bank Holidays, Christmas and Staff training days.

In both morning and afternoon sessions, a meal and/or snack will be provided at no additional cost. Specialist lessons are also provided at no additional cost to parents.

The following applies to all 2-3 years bookings:

Ad hoc sessions are charged at the above rates.

In the event that your child's funding does not immediately start on the Monday following their third birthday, the 2-3-year-old rates will be applied until funding is granted.
